

PARKINSON'S: BRAIN AND BEYOND CONFERENCE

Powering Forward with Parkinson's

Join us for the 2017 Brain and Beyond Conference as we seek to educate, empower and equip patients, caregivers and family members with news on the latest trends in managing Parkinson's symptoms and improving quality of life.

Friday, March 31, 2017

10:00 am | Registration and Vendor Exhibits
11:00 am - 2:30 pm | Speaker Presentations

Hilton Altamonte Springs

350 Northlake Boulevard
Altamonte Springs, FL, 32701

Seating is limited.

For more information or to RSVP, call (407) 303-1700.

When calling to RSVP, please let us know if you have any special needs and/or your meal preference (boxed lunch options include roast beef, roast turkey, or vegetarian).

Presented by

Speaker Presentations

Opening Remarks

Wendy Elliott, Assistant Vice President
Florida Hospital Neuroscience Institute

Challenges in Parkinson's: Managing the Non-motor Symptoms in PD and Improving Quality of Life

Néstor Gálvez-Jiménez, MD, MSc, MSHSA, FACP, FAHA, FACA, Cleveland Clinic Florida
Department of Neurology

Break-out Sessions

The Psychological Journey in Parkinson's

Dr. Daniel Weintraub, MD University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia Veteran's Affairs

Moments of Meaning: Affirmation and Optimism in Caregiving

Janet Edmunson, MEd Author of "Finding Meaning with Charles"

Powering Forward Through Parkinson's

Brian Grant, Former NBA Player (Portland Trailblazers, Miami Heat), head of the Brian Grant Foundation, and person with Parkinson's

